

A History of Native CA Lunch Series

Ch. 7: Friends and Enemies: Reframing Progress, and Fighting for Sovereignty, 1905-1928

June 19, 2026

Takeaways and Resources

The following resource(s) were shared during the webinar:

- Register here for the next lunch session on July 17, 2026: Chapter 8: Becoming the Indians of California: Reorganization and Justice, 1928-1954

Selected resources relating to this chapter for additional reading:

- For more on the desecration of graves by collectors, see Walt Lara Sr., "Respect for the Dead" in News from Native California (2006).
- For more on boarding school experiences, see Boarding School Blues: Revisiting American Indian Educational Experiences by Clifford E. Trafzer, Jean A. Keller and Lorene Sisquoc.
- For more on the Cahuilla Uprising, check out "The Death of Superintendent Stanley and the Cahuilla Uprising of 1907-1912" by Tanis Thorne here.
- Read more about Apapas v. U.S. (1914) here.
- Find the Carlisle Indian School Digital Resource Center, maintained by Dickinson College, here.
- For more on the Mission Indian Federation, see the Pechanga Band of Indians history page here.
- You can search online to find copies of Byron Nelson Jr.'s book Our Home Forever: The Hupa Indians of Northern California, here is an Amazon listing.
- For more on Marie Mason Potts and her journalism, see Marie Mason Potts from the University of Oklahoma Press here.
- For more on "outing programs" at the Sherman Indian Institute, see Native Students at Work: American Indian Labor and Sherman Institute's Outing Program, 1900-1945 here.
- Find Sherman Indian High School here and the Sherman Indian Museum here.
- For more on the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians' acquisition of the Mission Inn, see the Yuhaaviatam of San Manuel Nation's news page here.
- For more on Piper v. Big Pine School District, see "Piper v. Big Pine School District of Inyo County: Indigenous Schooling and Resistance in the Early Twentieth Century" on JSTOR here.
- For more on the history of school segregation in California, see All Deliberate Speed: Segregation and Exclusion in California Schools, 1855-1975 on JSTOR here.

A History of Native CA Lunch Series

Ch. 7: Friends and Enemies: Reframing Progress, and Fighting for Sovereignty, 1905-1928

June 19, 2026

Takeaways and Resources

- Check out the children's book Alice Piper Speaks Up here.
- For more information on the California Truth & Healing Council and their ongoing report, see their website here.
- For more on the impacts of federal Indian boarding schools on tribal communities, see the Federal Indian Boarding School Initiative from Indian Affairs here.
- For more on early twentieth-century fascination with American Indian basketry, see "An Ethnohistory of Things: Or, How to Treat California's Canastromania" here.