

Final Text for tribal cultural resources update to Appendix G: Environmental Checklist Form

1. Add a box for Tribal Cultural Resources in the table of contents entitled “Environmental Factors Potentially Affected” between the “Transportation/Traffic” box and the “Utilities/ Service Systems” box.

Tribal Cultural Resources

2. Add a statement to the Environmental Checklist Form at the beginning of Appendix G, which provides a general description and cover sheet for a proposed project:

11. Have California Native American tribes traditionally and culturally affiliated with the project area requested consultation pursuant to Public Resources Code section 21080.3.1? If so, has consultation begun?

Note: Conducting consultation early in the CEQA process allows tribal governments, lead agencies, and project proponents to discuss the level of environmental review, identify and address potential adverse impacts to tribal cultural resources, and reduce the potential for delay and conflict in the environmental review process. (See Public Resources Code section 21083.3.2.) Information may also be available from the California Native American Heritage Commission’s Sacred Lands File per Public Resources Code section 5097.96 and the California Historical Resources Information System administered by the California Office of Historic Preservation. Please also note that Public Resources Code section 21082.3(c) contains provisions specific to confidentiality.

V. CULTURAL RESOURCES

Would the project:

- a) Cause a substantial adverse change in the significance of an historical resource as defined in § 15064.5?
- b) Cause a substantial adverse change in the significance of an archaeological resource pursuant to § 15064.5?
- c) Directly or indirectly destroy a unique paleontological resource or site or unique geologic feature?
- d) Disturb any human remains, including those interred outside of ~~formal~~ dedicated cemeteries?

XVII. TRIBAL CULTURAL RESOURCES

a) Would the project cause a substantial adverse change in the significance of a tribal cultural resource, defined in Public Resources Code section 21074 as either a site, feature, place, cultural landscape that is geographically defined in terms of the size and scope of the landscape, sacred place, or object with cultural value to a California Native American tribe, and that is:
