FULL LIST OF URBAN GREENING ROUND 3 AWARDS

Alameda County:
- City of Berkeley, $726,000, Trees Build Communities: A Berkeley Urban Forest Expansion Project

Imperial County
- County of Imperial, $1,304,250, Heber Avenue from 10th Street to Fawcett Road

Kern County:
- County of Kern, $591,800, Hot Springs Valley Preserve Multi-Use Path Greening Project

Los Angeles County:
- From Lot to Spot, $313,117, Lynwood Urban Tree Canopy & Parkway Rain Gardens
- Koreatown Youth and Community Center, $319,000, Westlake/Alvarado Urban Greening
- Los Angeles, Bureau of Engineering, $2,200,000, North Atwater East Bank Riverway
- North East Trees, $1,564,228, South Central L.A. Greening Project
- City of Paramount, $2,932,451, West Santa Ana Bicycle and Pedestrian Trail Phase IV

Riverside County:
- City of Riverside, $3,708,509, Gage Canal Trail Phase I

San Diego County:
- Groundwork San Diego-Chollas Creek, $3,532,500, The Federal Blvd. De-Channelization and Trail Project

Stanislaus County:
- City of Patterson, $1,808,145, Patterson Urban Bicycle Trail Project at Salado Creek

The Urban Greening Program is part of California Climate Investments, a statewide initiative that puts billions of Cap-and-Trade dollars to work reducing greenhouse gas emissions, strengthening the economy, and improving public health and the environment — particularly in disadvantaged communities.